

PRESS RELEASE

New Chief Financial Officer for AL-KO Vehicle Technology

Erich Keilich has been appointed the new Chief Financial Officer of the AL-KO Vehicle Technology Group.

Erich Keilich has taken over as CFO of the AL-KO Vehicle Technology Group in September 2024. The economics graduate was most recently CFO of the CPI Gruppe Deutschland in Ulm. He was previously responsible for pioneering projects corporate development, process optimization and cost efficiency as CFO of Bauknecht Hausgeräte GmbH. Before joining Bauknecht, he worked in a variety of international finance roles for General Motors.

Harald Hiller, President and CEO of AL-KO Vehicle Technology, commented: "I am delighted that we have gained Erich Keilich as a leader with transformational experience who will enrich our management team. With his wide-ranging experience in finance and his determination to optimize processes and results, he will make a valuable contribution to the further development of our company."
